

Are you looking for an opportunity to make a career change?

Have you considered a career with the ocean economy?

Are you an Indigenous person living in Atlantic Canada?

The Indigenous Career Pivot Project is the newest pilot project seeking Indigenous applicants interested in 12-month work placements with Industry Members of Canada's Ocean Supercluster. There are currently ten employment opportunities designed to assist interested candidates through workplace mentorship and participation in a career development program. The workplace environment includes both working remotely or a combination of remote work and on-site. Some examples of potential employment include administration, business and marketing, software design, and quality control.

The Indigenous Career Pivot Project seeks applicants with Indigenous ancestry who possess the following qualifications:

- Highly motivated with a positive attitude
- A strong desire to build and expand their current skill set
- Ability to work both independently and as a team
- Communication and presentation skills
- Problem-solving and analytical skills
- Familiar with essential computer software such as Word, Excel and PowerPoint

If you're interested in advancing your career in the ocean industry, then please complete the application at <https://oceansupercluster.ca/projects/innovation-ecosystem-activities/indigenous-career-pivot-project/>

Please send the application along with a resume and cover letter by 4PM ADT on October 23rd, 2020 to icppsubmissions@oceansupercluster.ca