

The Minister of Justice is currently seeking to fill a member role on the Accessibility Advisory Board. This is a designated opportunity for candidates of Mi'kmaq and/or Indigenous descent. The Board provides advice to the Minister on issues related to disability and accessibility. Appointments to this Board are for three years.

The majority of members must be persons with disabilities.

All members are required to have one or more of the following:

- Previous experience in senior leadership
- Experience in public sector policy and administration, finance, communications, human resources, legal services, or stakeholder engagement
- Active supporters/champions of issues of importance within the disability communities; and
- Knowledge/awareness and commitment to accessibility and addressing impacts of barriers for persons with disabilities.

Applicants should have experience with, or a willingness to learn about, working with diverse communities and vulnerable populations.

The Government of Nova Scotia has an Employment Equity Policy. We welcome applications from Aboriginal people, African Nova Scotians, other racially visible people, persons with disabilities, women, and other employment equity groups. Applicants are encouraged to self-identify.
