
Make a Difference to Sport in Nova Scotia!

Become a Participation Lead at Sport Nova Scotia

Sport Nova Scotia is seeking a motivated collaborator with proven experience in program development to fill the position of Participation Lead.

The Participation Lead will be responsible to drive participation in sport across Nova Scotia by supporting and developing the capacity of Provincial Sport Organizations. The Participation Lead will also work to support the development of initiatives that provide opportunities (as athletes, coaches, leaders and officials) to Nova Scotians from traditionally under serviced communities such as African Nova Scotian and Indigenous Communities. It is also essential that the Participation Lead develops effective working relationships with provincial and community stakeholders in order to support sport programming in the province.

The ideal candidate will have the follow qualifications:

- 3+ years of experience in program development and implementation
- A proven record of leadership
- An undergraduate degree in Sport Administration, Community/Recreational Management or equivalent
- Demonstrate experience working with and in diverse communities, particularly racialized communities including Indigenous and African Nova Scotian communities
- Full understanding of Sport System in Canada
- Consultation skills, facilitation skills, Microsoft Office Suite,

Applications and resumes should be submitted by November 1st, 2021. Please apply by clicking on the following link. Salary is commensurate with qualifications.

Sport Nova Scotia a non-profit, non-government, equal opportunity organization dedicated to the development and promotion of sport in Atlantic Canada.
